"A Christ-Centered Community of Refuge for Families Who Love God, Love People, and Change Our World"

*"How did it get so late so soon?
It's night before it's afternoon.
December is here before it's June.
My goodness how the time has flew. How did it get so late so soon?" (Dr. Seuss)*

How, indeed, did it get so late in 2019 so soon? From Memorial Day to Labor Day has been lightning fast this year. If you don't think that Christmas and the turning of the calendar to 2020 (yes, 2020) will be here before you know it, then you will be surprised (perhaps not in a pleasant way).

Because time is such a precious commodity and one of the few things that we cannot get back once it's gone, we are called to use our time wisely. In fact, the Apostle Paul instructs us in both Ephesians 5:16 and Colossians 4:5 that we should "make the most of the time" that God has given to us.

The question becomes, "How?" The Bible gives us the answer to that question. Paul, in both these two passages of Scripture goes on to tell us how we can "redeem" the time that we have. First, we are to be wise — not foolish — in how we live in these "evil days." That wisdom should be evident to both those within the church and those "outsiders" who are unbelievers.

It has often been said that King Solomon was the wisest man who ever lived. However, there is One who is actually wiser than Solomon, One who is wisdom Himself — Jesus Christ! To know Jesus is to know wisdom. Without Jesus, we simply cannot have wisdom. We may perhaps be wise in our own eyes, but we will never be wise in the eyes of Jesus. And, wisdom begins with a fear or holy reverence for God:

"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding." Proverbs 9:10

Secondly, if we are to "make the most of the time," we must pair our wise living with understanding — understanding who God is and understanding God's will for our lives:

"So don't be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is." Ephesians 5:17

When you know what the Lord's will is for your life, then do it — regardless of what people may think or say — and ask Him to help you to "make the most of the time" that He has given you, so that you'll never have to ask, "How did it get so late so soon?"

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Howell

Emotion and Substance

I often say that before one comes to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ, one comes to a moment of desperation. This may not be the same for everyone, but I think it is a true statement.

The old man is desperate as he faces death. Finally, after years of struggle, he turns to God in a moment of salvation. His life is salvaged. The young man sees the destructive path he is on and turns to Christ in a desperate attempt to find meaning for life. His life has meaning. The little boy sees the happiness everyone in his family enjoys through their salvation, and he desperately wants to have what his family has. His life is changed.

We are desperate when we are separated from God. We either react in sin (rebellion) or we cry out to God for help. We run to God or away from Him. In Psalm 85:15 we read,

<sup>15</sup> From my youth,
I have been suffering and near death.
I suffer your horrors; I am desperate.

David is desperate to have God close to him. We are desperate to have God in our lives or we choose to refuse Him and live for ourselves or for others and try to find fulfillment in the things of this world or in efforts to make this world a better place.

The problem is that a selfish life and a selfless life does nothing to remove the punishment of sin. It is only in a desperate run to Christ that we find forgiveness and once we love Jesus, we soon learn how to love others. A selfless life for others is really a life lived for Christ.

But emotions are just the beginning of the journey. Substance sustains us on that journey. We cannot just run to Christ without embracing Him. We must learn. We must grow. We must change. This is far too often the problem. So many people want to know Jesus, but they do not want to be like Him. We want to know Him during that moment of desperation but once the desperation passes, we go on as before. In other words, we want to be saved from Hell but not from sin.

Psalm 119:18 tells us to learn and to study.

<sup>18</sup> Open my eyes so that I may contemplate wondrous things from your instruction.

We need to have our eyes opened to become a Christian, but we also need to have our eyes opened to become a mature Christian. Talk to any teacher and they will tell you they not only want their students to learn but to become life-long learners. God wants the same for us. Desperate emotions start us off on the journey, but the substance of the word keeps us on the journey. This is a journey full of discovery.

I talked with an older Christian not too long ago and they were shocked to realize that Mary washed the feet of Jesus at the beginning of His final week before His crucifixion. She had heard the story many times but never looked at it as an anointing before His death. It changed the meaning of the story for her forever. We must grow daily. We must learn daily. We must digest the word as we read it, sing it, hear it, and share it. It is my prayer that you will be on a journey with Jesus for your entire life. I pray you will be discipled and that you will disciple others.

We have started two new series for our weekly youth meetings. During our Sunday School class, we have begun studying Gospel Foundations. This next year we will be looking at how the Bible is the story of the gospel, God's good news to redeem humanity from our sin.

Naturally, we begin with creation. In this incredible instance where God creates everything from nothing, ex nihilo, and all that has ever been comes into existence. And at the end of the process, after all of the magnificent landscapes, after the all the wonders in the heavens, He creates the pinnacle of creation. This creation He makes in His own image. He makes us.

This act of creation displays many truths about God, but the one we are focusing on in this study is that creation establishes

God's authority over everything, including our lives. But as sinful creatures, we use the will God has given us to reject His authority and to follow our own path. This choice incurs the wrath of God, something we cannot avoid or earn our way out of.

But in the midst of our own sin, God makes a plan to redeem us. His plan has always been through His son, Jesus Christ. On Wednesday, we are studying a series called Boss. It is an examination on who and what we allow to have influence and authority in our lives. Is it stuff? Is it other people? Ultimately, if we want eternal life and life abundantly, we must submit our whole lives to Jesus who saves us from the sin we chose to take part in.

This month, we've given our students a challenge. It is called the "Lunch Table Challenge". Students have received either a devotional they may share with other Christian students in their schools, or a survey to help them start gospel conversations with classmates.

I encourage you to talk with your students about these lunch table discussions as well as how they are processing the truths they are learning about the gospel. Below are some passages you can reference. (Genesis 1-3; Psalm 139:14)

The Counseling Corner

Greetings and God bless you all. I am delighted to introduce to you a new column in the Beacon that will highlight a new ministry here at Ramoith Baptist Church. The new ministry is a Biblical counseling center called the Refuge Ministry. This ministry is dedicated to providing sound biblical counsel, encouragement, and guidance through the issues and concerns that plague the lives of believers and non-believers. Being led by God and His word, we seek to help those in need, with God's truth and direction. There is solace to those in despair if they seek God's assistance in their lives. We are a part of that assistance, as we offer love, support, and a ministry dedicated to helping people become whole again through the healing and restoration of God's holy power. In Proverbs there are numerous occasions where the passage speak to the benefit of wise counsel and to the blessing of finding those who will lead you in the way of God's word.

This is the mindset behind this new ministry area and we are devoting ourselves to the following purposes:

- 1) To restore to a body of believers and to establish in new believers, the power, the ability and the authority of the Bible to address all matters or concern or need in their lives.
- 2) To educate, equip, and encourage Christians on how to respond biblically to the challenges of life, this world, and the struggles therein. To assist those Christians in the implementation of sound doctrine and principles that will have a lasting impact on them and those around them.
- 3) To direct all believers, young and old, to the Bible and other sound materials and resources that will be beneficial to their development, growth, and maturity as a believer and follower of God.
- 4) To help bring people into a saving or restored relationship with Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

We will be offering counseling outreaches in the following manner. Couples, family, and individual counseling is available to address with any issues, problems, or concerns related to, but not limited by – marriage, divorce, finances, parenting, addictions, co-dependency, death, stress management, loneliness, fear, abuse (verbal, emotional, physical), mentoring, and many others. There are a number of specialized support groups and services that are also available and are listed below: GriefShare Support Group, Blended Family Support Group, Celebrate Recovery, Women Overcoming Depression, Prepare and Enrich Pre-marital and Marital Counseling, SYMBIS Pre-marital Counseling, Financial Peace University, Parenting, Men and Women's Discipleship, and Christian Fundamentals, to name a few.

The Refuge Ministry Center will be open to church families and members starting September 4th, followed by availability to the local community in the coming months. The center's operating hours will be Monday through Friday, 9am to 4 pm, with visits taking place by appointment. If you have any questions about this ministry, please feel free to contact me via email at counseling@rbcstafford.org or phone 540-659-4588 ext. 9 or Ms. Karen Larrabee at karen.larrabee@yahoo.com. You can also visit the church website www.rbcstafford.org for additional information about this ministry or any of the programs that we will be offering in the weeks and months to come. We covet your prayers, as we seek to assist those who are in need of wise counsel. We look forward to serving you or serving with you; God bless and be well.
